

KATE DINSMORE

Kate Dinsmore is a singer-songwriter based in Seattle, WA. A dynamic performer and vocalist, Dinsmore brings her songs to the stage with an undeniable presence. She found her passion for songwriting when she returned to the Pacific NW after almost a decade spent in Oklahoma.

Her music is powerful and emotional, with influences ranging from Jazz to Rock to Americana. Dinsmore's performances quickly gained a following in Seattle, allowing her to open for notable artists such as Colin Hay and the Dip.

Her voice is at one triumphant and intimate. The perfect soundtrack to dropping off the last of your ex's stuff and driving off into the sunset.

“Version of Me is full of moments of beautiful grandeur, and yet this is likely only a peek into what Dinsmore is capable of. Perhaps the next version of Kate Dinsmore will be even grander”

–Atwood Magazine

“Kate Dinsmore stops you dead in your tracks with her soaring vocals.”

–Ghettoblaster Magazine

“Something about Dinsmore’s voice reminds me of Carole King. The overall energy of the track feels like it’s a throwback as well as something exciting and modern”
